We Go, Blessed to Serve

The world itself keeps Easter Day,
And Easter larks are singing;
And Easter flowers are blooming,
And Easter buds are springing.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The Lord of all things lives anew,
And all His works are living too.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

John 20:1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."

Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him."

When she turned around, she saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?"

Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

Jesus said to her, "Mary!"

She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher).

Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that had said these things to her.

Rise Again, by Dallas Holms

| | |
|---|--|
| Go ahead, drive the nails in My hands | 'Cause I'll rise, again |
| Laugh at Me, where you stand | Ain't no power on earth can tie Me down |
| Go ahead, and say it isn't Me | Yes, I'll rise, again |
| The day will come, when you will see | Death can't keep Me in the ground |
| 'Cause I'll rise, again | |
| Ain't no power on earth can tie Me down | Go ahead, and say I'm dead and gone |
| Yes, I'll rise, again | But you will see that you were wrong |
| Death can't keep Me in the ground | Go ahead, try to hide the Son |
| | But all will see that I'm the One |
| Go ahead, and mock My name | 'Cause I'll come again |
| My love for you is still the same | Ain't no power on earth can keep me back |
| Go ahead, and bury Me | Yes, I'll come again |
| But very soon, I will be free | Come to take My people back |

- What songs, symbols, sounds, or sights witness to Easter Resurrection for me?
- How am I living out the Easter message in new ways this year?
- How might my experience of Easter this year draw me nearer to God and to others?
