Happy New Year, Dear Friends,

Mother Teresa of Calcutta said, “The coming of Jesus at Bethlehem brought joy to the world and to every heart. May His coming this Christmas bring to each one of us that peace and joy that He desires to give.”

A new year has arrived. My wish for each of you is a year of peace and joy. We have celebrated the coming of the love, joy, peace, and hope that God sent to us so many years ago. I encourage you to embrace all that God has given us. Share the love, joy, peace and hope that God has given you with all that you meet.

Sometimes we get so caught up in our own lives that we forget that there are others who don’t realize that their help has come to earth in the form of a baby who grew into a man that paid the price for our sin. I encourage each of you to share all that God has given us.

We begin a new year with great hopes of doing better and improving our lives and the lives around us. Sharing the love, peace, joy, and hope of Christ with others is our way of improving the lives of others.

At MUMC there are always ways to serve God and others. We offer Bible studies so we can learn more about Christ, Sunday School for our children to learn about God, fellowship at game night, sharing talents in both choirs and band, greeting others as they come into worship, and many other ways.

Many people make “New Year’s resolutions.” Why not make a resolution to participate in one new activity at MUMC? I believe that you may even enjoy serving God as you serve our church.

My friends, share the joy of having Christ in your lives. Share the love of God in all you do. Share the hope of a better day that God gives. Share the peace of knowing God is with you 24/7/365. God bless you in the New Year.

Shalom,

Pastor Terri

On Sunday, Jan. 11, we will recognize Human Relations Day, one of our denomination’s six special Sundays. The special offering on this day contributes to Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s vision of building “the beloved community” by supporting ministries of advocacy and community engagement such as the Community Developers Program, United Methodist Voluntary Services, and Youth Offender Rehabilitation Programs. More information is on the large bulletin board by the round tables in the narthex.

“Who is that young, really good tuba player?”

some people have been asking. She is Chris Jensen’s granddaughter, Cecilia Jensen. The other members of the church band are Ted Brainard (baritone) and Lisa Myers and her brother David Block (trumpets). New band members are welcome, and we can work around your schedule. Please talk to Lisa Myers in the church office if interested.

2026 Offering envelopes If you would like a box of offering envelopes, please take a box from the small black cabinet in the narthex and print your name next to your box’s number on the sign-up sheet.

You do not need a box of envelopes to receive a giving statement at year’s end. All that is needed for that is identifiable offerings, i.e. checks, electronic giving, or cash in an envelope with your name.

2025 Giving Statements are on the round table by the front entrance. Please take yours.

Future of Camp Michigamme

There will be a Listening Session with Pastor Eric Faulker to hear ideas on what the future of Camp Michigamme should be. Please come to share your ideas (and fond memories) on Saturday, Feb. 14, from 1:00 – 3:00 here at Memorial UMC. More information is on the small bulletin board.
